

Follow the Bus Rules or lose the privilege!

Today is "B" Day

Students' Corner
Mohamed Yahya, a 6th grader, had this revealing quote to share with us:
'We can't keep hiding from the truth and let it take us by surprise!'

Support your PTA

On Wednesday, Oct. 10th, there will be a bake sale to support the PTA. Donations of baked goods are accepted in the office by 9am.

Varsity Volleyball Girls Back to their winning ways!

On Friday, October 5th Stout Girls' Volleyball Varsity played Woodworth. They won the game by a score of 3 sets to 0. It was a well-deserved win for the girls and a quick recovery from their 2-1 loss to Lowrey. The win puts their record at 4 wins and 1 loss. GO Falcons Go!

Do Not Lose Your Bus Privilege

Students taking the bus need to follow the bus rules of behavior. The rules are there to protect your safety and will be enforced appropriately. Students should:

- Mount and dismount the bus safely.
• Be in their proper seat all the time.
• Not extend their limbs and/or heads through the window.
• Not eat or drink on the bus.
• Keep the bus tidy and clean.
• Not damage bus or equipment.
• Not throw any objects inside or outside the bus.
• Obey the drivers' instructions and directions all the time.
• Be courteous and speak to the driver and to each other using polite tone and proper volume.
• Not use bad or foul language.
• Not fight, push, or shove.

Failure to do so will result in consequences that include:

- detentions
• suspensions
• community work
• ban from school trips or activities
• kicking the violators off the bus for the remainder of the month

A bus is a privilege. It stops being so once the rules of conduct and behaviors are broken.
